

A Tale of Two Cities* In-Class Essay

English 10 Honors

The novel A Tale of Two Cities, written by Charles Dickens, is segmented into three books or sections; the first section is titled “Recalled to Life”. Based on this title, prove how “Recalled to Life” does not just apply to the first section of the novel but truly encompasses meaning throughout the entirety of the piece. You will explore this concept by selecting two characters who have been “Recalled to Life”, and prove that their struggles give birth to new life and hope. This response should focus around the universal theme of resurrection.

Point Value: 200 points

Evidence: must include 4 direct quotes/evidence (minimum)

Title: Must have original title is necessary