

Journal #5

English 10 Honors

In your own words, define friendship. Now, think about the importance and role of friendship when compared to family? Does one take precedence over the other? Are they equal? Some believe that friends are just as important as family and treat some of their friends like family.

Imagine being put in a position of having to choose between the well-being of your country and a friend/family member. Who do you choose? Why? Make sure to explain the nuances of your answer.